Description

Hanse 411 2005

A modern beauty with traditional touches.

If you yearn for performance in a traditional modern package you cannot go past a Hanse.

This one owner 2005 Hanse 411 has all the qualities a true sailor will appreciate as well as spritely performance.

Well cared for since new and only lightly used she presents in above average condition, her current owner can no longer sail and is looking to pass on this vessel to the next lucky owner.

More than just eye candy for yacht lovers Hanse 411 are prized as potential liveaboard cruising vessels, a great layout with good headroom throughout and a large owner's cabin forward and two cabins aft.

The ease of sail handling with furling sails and a self-tacking headsail makes this vessel very easy to sail short-handed. The new electric winch and single line reefing systems are a bonus.
