Description

Nine Tales was built with entertaining in mind with its large level the main deck being comparable to an intercity apartment, current owner had the vessel built to complete trips from Perth to the Kimberlie's and the Abrolhos Islands and majorly to entertain at Rottnest Island.

The Galley is aft with servery window to the rear deck and well-appointed for long-distance travels, The saloon is situated forward of the galley featuring two large lounges more like an intercity apartment.
